FOREWORD

I am happy to know that the II, Volume in the series of the "Who's Who of Freedom Struggle in Andhra Pradesh" comprising of the life-sketches of the Freedom Fighters of the districts of Karimnagar, Khammam, Krishna, Kurnool, Mahboobnagar, Medak and Nalgonda has been brought out by the State Committee for the Compilation of the History of the Freedom Struggle in Andhra Pradesh.

The Gandhian era in the history of our country is a golden era filled with a spirit of idealism and sacrifice. In these days of mundane materialism it is even difficult to catch the spirit of those times.

Being a born optimist, when I contemplate the contemporary scene, the words of Gandhiji, "In midst of darkness light persists, in the midst of untruth truth persists" keep ringing in my ears.

Apparently our country is going through a period of darkness and turbulence that augurs ill to our cherished ideas of democracy; In spite of these lurking dangers from all sides and the apparent breakdown of law and order in several places, the recent mid-term elections in our country have proved that the common Indian however illiterate and rustic he might be, has a robust commonsense and that he knows how to nurture and cherish democracy.

This gives one the confidence to feel that the sacrifices made by the earlier generation at the altar of the Country's Independence will not go in vain, that one need not despair of India's future, though the Indian sky may be at the moment overcast with dark clouds of social and economic unrest that makes one almost feel frustrated. This is only a transitional phase in the history of our country, brought about by the churning of the old order of things in order to give place to a new and vibrant social order. It makes me strike an optimistic note in the words of Kay Boyle, concerning the future of India ;

"O' this is not spring but in the air
There is a murmuring of new things
This is the time of a dark winter in the heart but in me are green traitors"—

I congratulate the Members of the Committee for the Compilation of the History of the Freedom Struggle in Andhra Pradesh for having brought out this Volume.

PREFACE

It gives me great pleasure to be associated with the publication of the II Volume of the "Who's Who of Freedom Struggle in Andhra Pradesh," comprising of the seven Districts of Karimnagar, Khammam, Krishna, Kurnool, Mahboobnagar, Medak and Nalgonda. The life-sketches of the Freedom Fighters cover all the phases of the Freedom Struggle from 1818 to 1948. As one reads the lifesketches, the heroic struggle and the ennobling sacrifices of our people leaves one with a sense of pride and inspires one with the urge to follow their foot steps. It makes one wonder at the lofty idealism and stature attained by our countrymen who had been participants in the Freedom Movement.

Inheritors of the same noble ideals, let not the present generation appear dwarfed in nobility of spirit displayed by them. The earlier generation under the Gandhian leadership have risen to immense heights of sacrifice to achieve freedom. It is for us now to deserve and preserve that freedom by dedicating ourselves for the economic betterment of our country and by making India a strong democratic nation.

I congratulate Prof. Sarojini Regani, Convener, Committee for the Compilation of the History of the Freedom Struggle in Andhra Pradesh and other Members of the Committee for having brought out this Volume. I am sure that they will endeavour to bring out the III Volume of the series at an early day.

INTRODUCTION

This Volume is the second in the series of the three Volumes of the "WHO'S WHO OF FREEDOM STRUGGLE IN ANDHRA PRADESH" that are being published by the State Committee for the Compilation of the History of the Freedom Struggle in Andhra Pradesh, constituted by the Ministry of Education and Cultural Affairs, Government of Andhra Pradesh. As explained earlier in the 1st Volume, the lifesketches of the various freedom fighters are alphabetically arranged and are also published district-wise with the districts being taken up alphabetically.

This particular volume comprises of the life-sketches of the freedom fighters belonging to the districts of Karimnagar, Khammam, Krishna, Kurnool, Mahboobnagar, Medak and Nalgonda. As in the first volume, all the Movements concerning the freedom struggle from 1818 to 1948 are covered. Various source materials like Jail records, Journals, Newspapers, Government records, Research articles, relevant books on freedom struggle and interviews with the persons concerned were tapped 'in compiling the' life-sketches.

The life-sketches in brief not only throw light on the relevant features of the various incidents that constituted the movement for the freedom struggle and have left an imprint on the sands of our country's history but also speak of many of the unknown and less known and forgotten warriors who have participated in India's freedom struggle and "ennobled it by their innumerable sacrifices.

The publishing of their life-sketches is the least, one could do in paying homage to their memory. We are grateful to the Government of Andhra Pradesh for having taken up the scheme of publishing the "Who's Who of Freedom Struggle in Andhra Pradesh" and for giving us the opportunity to publish the life-sketches in detail, whether they be of well-known personalities or of less-known personalities. Since the compilation of the life-sketches was taken up in a minute and detailed manner, it took a longer time for us in bringing out these books than in some other States who have published either selected life-sketches or some selected material while in several States in India with a similar scheme the work is yet to see the light of the day.

We are beholden to the Honourable Chief Minister, Dr. M. Channa Reddy, the Chairman of the State Committee for the Compilation of the History of the Freedom Struggle in Andhra Pradesh for the interest he evinced in the scheme.

We are grateful to Sri P. V. Choudary, Hon'ble Minister for Endowments and History of Freedom Struggle and Sri B. Venkata Rama Reddy, Hon'ble Minister for Education, Government of Andhra Pradesh for the kind interest they showed in the scheme. We are also grateful to Sri Veeramachaneni Venkara Narayana, the former Minister for Planning, Endowments, Archives, Archaeology and History of Freedom Struggle, Government of Andhra Pradesh for the sympathy and support he gave us in implementing the scheme.

We are greatly obliged to Sri M. Gopala Krishnan, I.A.S., Secretary, Education Department, Dr. Mrs. D. M. De Rebello, I.A.S., Joint Secretary, Education Department and Dr. N. Ramesan, I.A.S., Director General of Archives and Archaeology, Government of Andhra Pradesh for their kind cooperation in implementing the scheme.

I thank Sri P. Krishnam Raju, Assistant Research Officer of this Office for going through the proofs of this Volume and Sri T. Mallaiah and Sri V.
Venkateshwarlu for preparing the typed scripts of the Volume. I am also grateful to M/s Shivaji Press, Secunderabad for executing the printing work neatly.
